d. The factory manufactured several electric measuring instruments and other electrical equipment, such as signal generators, oscillators, oscillographs, resistance boxes, and solenoids. Some of the production is exported. The factory itself imports several types of voltmeters and ammeters from a Czech factory called Tesla.

e. The buildings are guarded, and admittance is checked by the police.

2. T-Kasprzaka

This factory manufactures radar and radio parts. The factory, which is named after a Communist owner, is located in the street of the same name (B. C-6) not far from T-14. 25X1

It was the second-largest of this type in Poland, since only D.Z.W.U.R. in Dzierzonlow is larger, and that there was a special department for military production. 25X1
